

Marymount International School
proudly announces
the return of two of our talented alumnae

You are cordially invited to a concert given by

Takako Iyadomi (Class of '06)

and

Mayuko Kezuka (Class of '01)

on Monday, 7th June, at 7.30pm

at: Marymount International School, George Road, Kingston upon Thames, KT2 7PE

☎ 020 8949 0571

Takako Iyadomi is currently studying for a Bachelor of Music Vocal Performance in the music department of Emporia State University in Emporia, Kansas, USA. She is in London touring with ESU A Cappella Choir from Emporia State University.

Takako will sing a selection of her favourite pieces, which will include –

- ✧ Tornami a vagheggiar by Handel
- ✧ I know that my Redeemer liveth from Messiah by Handel
- ✧ Blackbird singing by Head
- ✧ Mio babbino caro from Gianni Schicchi by Puccini

Mayuko Kezuka studied at the Royal College of Music with the renowned pianist John Blakely. She graduated with a BMus and MMus from the RCM in 2008.

Mayuko has been performing extensively around the UK in venues such as St Martin in the Fields, Westminster Cathedral and the Leighton House, and also at venues in Asia and the USA. She also enjoys an active teaching and chamber music career and is currently working for Sony Computer Entertainment as a Music Transcriber.

Mayuko will play -

- ✧ Chaconne in D Minor by Bach/Busoni

RSVP by 1st June 2010 to alumnae@marymountlondon.com